

Beginner and Intermediate Tajweed

Class Format

- Students will have class once a week
- Each class session consists of 30 minutes of individual recitation time and 30 minutes of listening to a fellow student.
- Classes are held via Skype or Zoom, based on the student's choice.

Class Schedule

- The class begins with the student reciting his/her lesson.
- The teacher will give the student the next lesson by reciting and having the student repeat.
- Through this centuries old process, the teacher helps the student to practice and correct mistakes in class.
- The student then spends time during the week practicing and perfecting the lesson taken in class.

Program of Study

This course is set up to be taken as many times as necessary, and each student progresses at his/her own pace.
